

United Nations Economic Commission for Africa

Office for North Africa Mission Report

By:	Khaled Hussein and Amal Nagah Elbeshbishi
Objective:	To participate in UNCT Retreat- Egypt
Dates:	28- 30 January 2020
Venue:	Mena House Hotel- Cairo, Egypt
Report	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- The purpose of the retreat was to finalize the Leadership Compact as the agreement of the UNCT on what each organization will be accountable for in 2020, and articulate how UNCT will start to deepen UN reform, deepen the engagement with the reforms taking place within Egypt and have a common story line on SDGs acceleration.- The retreat was managed through shared leadership since each session had a UNCT member as a moderator. The moderator organized and chaired the session, and produced a concrete outcome. Other UNCT members had roles as presenters and discussants. The set up for the retreat was geared towards interactive and lively debates.- ECA will become the lead author for macro-economic analysis (integrating work of ESCWA and UNDP).
Some people met	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Richard Dictus, the United Nations Resident Coordinator, Egypt- John Jabbour, WHO Representative for Egypt- Ahmed Khalifa, WHO- Menghestab Haile, WFP Representative for Egypt- Dina Saleh, IFAD- Eric Oechelin, ILO Representative for Egypt- Pascal Annycke, ILO- Peter Ragno, UNICEF- Farida Matta, UNDP- Aaloak Jaswal, UNTIL- Arun Jacob, Office of the United Nations Resident Coordinator, Egypt- Marwa Alameldeen, Office of the United Nations Resident Coordinator, Egypt- Sally Hamdy, Office of the United Nations Resident Coordinator, Egypt- Lilia Hachem Naas, ITC- Geneva
Annexes:	Agenda; UNPDF Results Matrix Whitepaper: UNDS Reform in Egypt, Next Steps; presentations