Course appreciation messages

“I would like to thank IDEP for giving me this opportunity to participate in the course of Industrialization and urbanization. The knowledge and skills that I have gathered will be very useful in my line of work. Thank you IDEP for the work that you are doing in building the human resource capacities in African institutions which is very critical in promoting socio-economic development on the continent.”

TEFERA TESFAW WONDIMU

“I have thoroughly enjoyed all the modules! I am very much impressed with the quality and depth of the information given. Kudos to the team at IDEP and I hope to participate in more of such training programmes in the future. Congratulations to my fellow participants. Let's make it count!”

OPOKU-BOATENG RICHARD

“ Personally, I say thank you IDEP and IDEP Experts for giving me the opportunity to participate in the course! No doubt, I have come out richer in terms of comprehending the concepts, facts, dynamics and processes of urbanization and industrialization as related to socio-economic developments in Africa. The knowledge and skills that I have gathered will be very useful in my line of work. I will recommend the Course to colleagues at my work at the University of KwaZulu-Natal (UKZN).”

CLAYTON HAZVINEI VHUMBUNU

“I will like to appreciate the Management of IDEP for putting their efforts together to come up with this educative and informative course. What I learnt would go a long way to help me in giving intelligent suggestions to policymakers in the line of my career as a Scientific Officer. Also, to my fellow participants, I will like to say thank you all for sharing ideas and knowledge. I will love to meet you all in the next course and if possible face to face and not behind the computer. Thank you all.”

AGWU CHIDOFOROM IREM

“This is to express my gratitude for having organized this very important course which I was able to participate in. It has been already instrumental to my career and daily work when I was invited to make presentation on Industrial policy perspective on local economic development in Rwanda’s cities as serve as one of the panelists during the 3rd National Urban Forum held in Kigali, 6-7, February, 2019 officiated by the Minister of Infrastructure with the Executive Director of UN Habitat Maimunah Mohd Sharif and Mayor of City of Kigali discussing the current state of Urbanization in Rwanda.”

JONAS MUNYURANGABO

“I thank everyone for bringing their expertise and experience during the training and engaging in such fruitful, constructive and open exchanges throughout the course. Reflect the continuous engagement and high quality of the discussions and acknowledge that a lot of ground was covered across the various modules. Throughout the course, I have noted both positive and negative effects of Urbanization and that Urbanization yields positive effects if it happens within the appropriate limits. I look forward to participating in yet another organized online training next time, when we will put extra effort into making the next training even more useful, informative and exciting.”

Impact Feedback messages

“Please be informed that the Executive Governor of Ekiti State, Nigeria has directed that I should be seconded to Rural Access and Mobility Project (RAMP). RAMP is a World Bank project aim at making the agricultural produce getting to marketable locations. I am indeed grateful to IDEP for the knowledge impacted on me. Thank you and best regards.”

DR. STEPHEN IBIJOLA

“I would like to send my appreciation to IDEP for having given me an opportunity to participate in the short course on Gender Responsive Economic Policy Management. The course has enabled me be a fully fledged gender advocate. Last week I was invited to the interview for an LLM Human Rights Programme, and were 50 candidates competing for 15 positions. I applied the knowledge I acquired from IDEP to beef up my arguments and points during the interview. Consequently, I am one of the top 15 candidates. Thank you IDEP! Your work proves that the sky is not the limit because there is a better place beyond.”
